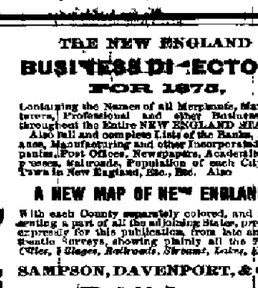
SEA CAPTAIN CURED

—OF—

RHEUMATISM.



HE GRINS WITH JOY.

SEWICKLY, Mass., June 3, 1875.

PROF. ALPHONSE BILLIARD:

DEAR SIR,—For the alleviation of human suffering I feel it my duty as well as pleasure to certify to the following facts in addition to my own case.

The past spring I was sore afflicted with Sciatic Rheumatism, suffering night and day and night without any alleviation, the most excruciating pain I ever knew. My doctor who practices in my family for over fifty years, to my astonishment, said in view of all I had suffered in the most confident, and that medicine would do me no good—he could not help me, time probably would, and in six or eight weeks I might begin to improve; in the meantime I must grin and bear it. But I was not disposed to do so, and in my despair, on the 25th of last March, which no one can realize but a sufferer, I purchased that famous remedy, Dr. Alphonse Billiard's Oil of Life, which at once relieved me of pain. I improved that day, and was the obtained at No 98 Hanover st., Boston, the directions accompanying directions seemed ridiculous, and I determined to give it a fair trial. I did so, at the same time following out the directions. I followed the directions, and the result was that on using the third bottle I was sensible that I was getting perceptibly better, and by perseverance in using the fourth bottle, my pain had passed away, and I now have occasion to grin (with joy) that I belong to the human species.

Yours respectfully,

WM. B. PHELPS.

We endorse the above testimonial as genuine

G. C. GOODWIN & CO.

At Phelps is a gentleman of high standing and well known in this community, and for the past forty years has been recognized by our shipping merchants as one of the most prominent ship chandlers doing trade from the port of Boston. This testimony is genuine and speaks more than volumes could express, in favor of the great merits of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure.

This medicine is prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in the trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in the highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

In simple cases, sometimes one or two doses are sufficient. In the most chronic cases it is safe to give relief by the use of four bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy, hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, and surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all druggists throughout the United States and Canada, and we believe that your druggist has not got it in stock, we refer to said for it to any of the wholesale druggists in Boston Concord, N. H., Worcester, Providence, Portland, Bangor and other places.

The Baptist church in Benfield is completed and will be dedicated this month. The pulpit will be supplied the most part by the professors at Waterville, thus giving the attendants preaching without money and without price.

The friends of Vassalboro hold their quarterly meeting this week partly in their own house of worship and partly in the Methodist church. John Daniels and David Deghans were the principal preachers from abroad. Their labors have been attended with good effects. There was a hungering and thirsting after righteousness on the churchyard at excitement of old times. They say be sanguine. God makes you so, but the cut and color of one's clothes is a small part of true scriptural singularity. They speak in favor of Sabbath Schools and other appliances in the church. They have also had singing at their meetings, quite a new feature for this place which quite an opposition to such has existed. The house has been well filled during all these meetings. The young as well as old have attended. Seven instances people have been invited forward and united to unite for prayers and consecration, and aged friends have moved forward among the number.

THE SAYINGS OF THE WAYS

The action of the New York Democracy in reaffirming the hard money doctrines of last year and declaring for the payment of the public debt in coin raises a square issue with the party in Ohio and Pennsylvania, and will sadly bother the Democratic trimmers who are uncertain which faction will prove the stronger. The course of the New York Democracy means simply a championship of Tilden as a Presidential candidate, and as his success of inflation would be sure to give the nomination to one of the prominent Western advocates of fiat money Tilden's only chance lay in making a fight on a hard money platform. War is thus declared between Tilden in the East and the leaders in the West backed up by Pennsylvania. That the only New Yorker will make a stubborn contest for the prize no one familiar with his skillful political manipulations during the Tweed regime can doubt; but whether he has much chance of making headway against the inflation mania that is so rapidly spreading among the ignorant masses of the Democracy is quite another question. Tilden plays "hard money" because it is his only card, but he must rally support that is not yet visible in the party elsewhere or he will be swept aside by the repudiationists of the West who denounce him and the "Wall street bullionists" as traitors to Democracy.

It will be interesting to watch the course of the Maine Democracy now that they reach this "parting of the ways" between New York and Pennsylvania and the West and have to decide whether they will keep flying the hard money banner thrown out during our recent campaign and throw up their hats for Sam Tilden or pull down the gilded device which has served through the canvass and run up the old black flag of repudiation under which they followed Pendleton in 1868.

One thing is sure, that the leaders in Maine care nothing for consistency and will not let that little platform trouble them a moment if they conclude that inflationists are strong enough to carry the Presidential convention. There are strong indications that they do believe that greenbackism is to be the future Democratic war-cry, and we shall doubtless soon see them changing their colors on the currency issue with the same coolness and effrontery that they have notunfurled on other occasions. They are looking only for the spoils and will favor any doctrine that promises to increase the party vote. Let the people watch them and prepare to overwhelm them with defeat next year.

ELECTION COMPARISONS.

[From the Augusta Journal.]

The complete returns from the election will dissipate some errors into which a few gunners have fallen. It is not true that the Republican majority in the State is the smallest which has been given since the party came into power twenty years ago. The majority for Garcelon will be at least 5,000—probably more. In 1852 the Republican majority was but 1770. The next year, however the majority bounded up to 17,592 in 1857 it was 12,140 in 1855 it was 21,787 and in 1860 it went up to 27,382. If the smallest majority ever given by the Republicans of Maine was in 1852 and that was followed by some of the largest pro-slavery party has ever achieved.

Again when the full vote appears it will be seen that there has been no change among the voters. The Democrats have put east no larger a vote this year as in some other years. It will not be as large as the vote on the Kimball in 1872 or for Chamberlain in 1868. They have simply succeeded in working a little of great effort secured missing and the fine use of money bringing out to the polls a large share of the voters which belong to their party. Though it was to signify much upon the corresponding Rep business in which they have been more successful than they ought to have been. There have been no changes in favor of the Democrats—but there has been a failure to bring out the Republican vote while the Democrats have brought out theirs in pretty full strength.

It is a great mistake to attribute the reduction of the Republican majority to a political wave or to any cause that will permanently reduce the Republican majority. The Republican majority in years other than the Presidential election year may truly be set down at from 8,000 to 12,000. That year it will be 5 000—a result not very depressing to Republicans nor one from which it will inform Democrats can obtain much comfort. The Democrats played a smart game and lost—thanks to the Republicans who were not caught napping.

Their success has thoroughly awakened the Republican party who now see that as only years of victories cannot be depended upon to carry present and future elections so that vigilance and activity must be practiced every year if we would have large Republican majorities.

REVIVAL OF FREE TRADE

[From the Boston Globe.]

We have on every side good reports about the opening of the fall trade. There is nothing of a "rush" in any department, but there is a steady improvement in nearly every class of business. On the whole, the prospect ahead is really quite assuring. In New York it is said on the authority of leading firms, that business has opened in a much more encouraging manner than was anticipated. The Tribune reports that sales are going on steadily, though buyers are cautious, being careful not to become the least overstocked. The Eastern business in dry goods and some other lines is stated to have been somewhat better than trade with some other parts of the country, but the Western and Southern buyers are taking a fair share of goods. More activity is certainly indicated this fall than prevailed the last, and we seem to have at last turned the corner and entered upon the way that leads to a healthful revival of trade.

THE "BLOODY SHIRT"

The Chicago Tribune sums up the cause of the Mississippi riot briefly and pointedly as follows: "A gang of Democratic ruffians interfered with a Republican meeting and got hurt as bad as the negroes did in the fight that followed. Thereupon a mob of desperadoes assembled, armed, and commenced shooting unarmed negroes in the woods, in their cabins and in fields where they were at work. Having murdered all who could not get out of the way, the Democratic newspapers represented all was quiet, and the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee telegraphed to the President there was no disturbance. The dead was only cold-blooded murder."

THE LEGISLATURE.

We publish a list of Senators and Representatives elected according to our latest advices, showing that the Senate will consist of 19 Republicans and 12 Democrats, while of the 151 members of the House the returns show 79 Republicans and 59 Democrats elected, with one tie and 13 to hear from. It is thought that the full House will stand about 87 Republicans to 64 Democrats.

Waldo

Waldo county complete gives Connor 2953, Roberts 3019. Democratic majority 66. Last year Dingley 3007, Theomb 2905. Republican majority 386. The Democratic Senators and county ticket are elected by the following majorities: Senators, Estes 53, White 73; Commissioner, Fowler 98, Treasurer, Moody 135.

Aroostook.

The Presque Isle Star does not fully concede the election of Donworth as Senator and is doubtful about the County Treasurer. It claims the election of the Republican candidates Burleigh for County Commissioner and Boyd, for Sheriff. The indications are that the Democrats have elected the Senator and Treasurer.

Presque Isle did well, increasing its Republican vote from 107 last year to 127 this, and increasing the Republican majority from 76 to 80, and giving General Plaisted a majority of 73 against the Aroostook candidate.

Hancock.

Returns from Hancock give Connor 2,568, Roberts 2,637. The remaining towns gave 30 Democratic majority last year, when the Republican majority was 740. The Republican Sheriff, and at least one Senator (Hon. J. T. Hinkley) are elected.

The Portland Press says: "The ten thousand Republicans who stayed at home because of some local discontent or because they thought things were all safe enough and their votes unnecessary will not try the experiment again. They will appreciate the fact that the old adversary though often beaten, still returns vitality enough to be dangerous. The little scare of this year will bear fruit in a great popular uprising next year."

Catholic interference in politics is deprecated even by the New York Herald, whose utterances have sometimes been regarded as representative of a certain branch of the Catholic Church. Concerning a New Jersey Jesuit priest who, in a recent sermon, denounced the Administration and asked God to hasten its end, the Herald says:

"Once from this line in politics, once throw out the slightest inclination that it will be for the interest of the Order of Jesuits or of the Roman Church that General Grant's line be defeated and we shall have such an uprising of the Protestant sentiment throughout the East and West as will compel his re-election."

NEW MAGAZINES.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for October opens with an interesting illustrated article, by E. C. Bruce, entitled Wanderings with Argyll, in which the historic and classic associations of the shores of the Mediterranean are made the theme of a light and agreeable discussion. This is followed by another illustrated sketch, The Oak awakens in May, by Sidney Lanier, the poet. Francis Wharton, LL.D., Lecturer on Law in the Boston University, contributes a very able and suggestive paper on the relations of Spiritualism and Jurisprudence. The Corner-s-Paton, from the French, and A Conspiracy, by Christian Reid, the popular Southern writer, are two graphically-written stories. In the Fuseland, by Robert Wilson, is a very interesting account of life and scenes in the pine district of North Carolina. A like entertaining paper, but covering a directly opposite field, is A Day in Chinatown by J. W. Ames, in which he gives an amusing relation of a day's sights and doings in the Chinese quarter of San Francisco. The Truth about Shakespeare Bacon is a statement that will correct many popular misconceptions in regard to this celebrated woman, the grand-daughter of Lucien Bonaparte, the widow of Italy's distinguished statesman, Mrs. Lucy Hooper, in The Largest Retail Store in the World, describes the Bon Marché, the great shopping-place of Paris. The second part of The Atonement of Leam Dundas, by Mrs. E. Lynn Linton, appears, and gives further developments of a powerful story. The number concludes with an attractive budget of "Monthly Gossip," and some able reviews under "Literature of the Day." J. B. Lippincott & Co., publishers, Philadelphia, Pa.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The change in the Maine figures will renew the wrangle to Republican leaders that they have a great battle to fight, next year.—Hartford Post.

Large major ties for a series of years are pretty sure to get a party out of condition to fight, and our Maine brethren needed to know something of the possibilities of the foe, as an acclimation for the Centennial.—Providence Journal.

The Harrisburg Telegraph denies that Judge Pershing, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, supported the Government during the war. It asserts that while in the Legislature he aided his party to obstruct and delay the passage of the law to enable Pennsylvania soldiers to vote in the field, and that he voted for a batch of copperhead resolutions denouncing nearly every measure undertaken by the Federal Government to suppress the rebellion and notably censuring Abraham Lincoln for issuing the Proclamation of Emancipation.

THE CALAIS ELECTION. The Calais Advertiser says: "The Democrats had all the money they wanted this year to carry the election, while the Republicans had no money and did little work, and yet in the city of Democratic Calais has been found the majority for Republican candidates for Governor and Congressman. Such a result is unprecedented in the history of Calais."

CHICAGO, Sept. 17. The salary of the Bishop was fixed at $5,000.

They rode 300 miles in eight days, hoping to reach their comrades before the Indians should discover them. The men were found safe and well, and the whole party again successfully retreated from among the hostile bands, reaching Sapid Ute on the 11th. In four weeks they rode 600 miles. Mr. Jackson's photographic division reached the Platte camp safely, on the 5th inst.

The answers, every description and to the test question "who buys candy for Charlie?" Answered "Uncle Joe." His reputed brother spoke up and said, "the means Uncle Bill." There seems to be no doubt of his identity and all Belleville is in excitement. Belleville is a small village 7 miles south of Ypsilanti and 25 miles west of Detroit.

Secretary Delano Before the Red Cloud Committee.

Secretary Delano was before the Red Cloud Committee to-day and stated he had informed the President that he wished the Interior Department relieved of the Indian Bureau. Nothing important was elicited. The president of the board asked the Secretary whether he desired to propound any questions concerning statements in Mr. Marsh's pamphlet. The Secretary said he had no desire to do so and would leave this investigation, so far as he was concerned, to the documents. The Secretary also said that he did not remember that the Board of Indian Commissioners had ever differed with him in the allowance of accounts on the ground that they were tainted with fraud. He would not fail while he was Secretary to take all proper steps to punish all wrongs committed.

The Secretary was asked whether any member of the Board of Indian Commissioners expressed a desire for the removal of Mr. Smith as Commissioner of Indian Affairs and replied that a former member of the board, Wm. Welsh, had expressed such a desire. This was in the fall of 1873. Mr. Welsh said that if the Secretary should remove Smith he would escape trouble and avoid a Congressional investigation. The Secretary informed Welsh that he could not afford to remove an officer in whom he had confidence. The Secretary further said to Welsh that if he would make charges against Smith he would appoint a Commissioner to be named by Welsh to investigate them or appoint Welsh himself as such Commissioner. If the report should sustain the truth of the charges the Secretary promised that he would ask the President to remove Smith. Welsh, however, did not acquiesce in the proposition. Subsequently Welsh was suggested to him as a proper person to be Commissioner of Indian Affairs, but the Secretary objected to Welsh owing to his indiscretion and want of adaptation to the place. Prof. Marsh said he had no questions to ask the Secretary.

Trouble for the Maine Democracy.

"Under which King, Bezonian?"

The Syracuse Convention

SYRACUSE, Sept. 17. The Democratic State Convention met at 9:30 A. M. Reports from committees were read. The Committee on Resolutions reported the following:

The Democratic party of New York renew their pledge of fidelity to the principles adopted and affirmed unanimously by the delegates representing the Democrats of all the United States together assembled in their latest National Convention, and since reapproved and endorsed by Democratic majorities in fifteen States, comprising more than half of the total population of the Union. [Extract from the National Democratic platform, Baltimore, July 10, 1872.]

Th. The public credit must be sacredly maintained and we denounce repudiation in every form and guise. (Applause.)

8th. A speedy return to specie payment is demanded by the highest consideration of commercial morality and honest government. (Applause.) To this authentic declaration of Democratic principles and policy the time gives proof that the pressure and depression of busines is caused by an excessive, depreciated and irredeemable currency, by enormous and ill-adjusted State and Federal taxation, and by extravagance, waste and peculation in the administration of public affairs. The remedy for this evil is not to be found in the renewal of any of its causes. In the face of the fact that the recent fall of prices has followed inflation, any attempt to increase the currency would be worse than effectual to revive prosperity, for it would interrupt the healing processes of industry. It would be worse than futile to restore confidence, for it would create distrust and new uncertainties in business, paralyze the beginning of enterprise rob labor of its too scanty employment, and while stilling the progress of administrative reforms, inflict lasting dishonor of the credit, the intelligence and the character of the country. (Applause.)

The Democratic party of New York also reaffirm the principles set forth in their platform a lopted last year at Syracuse and endorsed by 50,000 Democratic majority (Applause) at the election following, in a poll of nearly 800,000 votes and vindicated before all the people of this Republic by the illustrious administration of Governor Samuel J. Tilden. (Great applause.)

[From the New York Democratic platform, Syracuse, Sept. 16th, 1874.]

First—Gold and silver the only legal tender; no currency inconvertible with coin.

Second—Steady steps towards specie payments; no step backwards.

Third—Honest payment of the public debt in coin; sacred preservation of the public faith.

Fourth—Revenue reform; federal taxation for revenue only; no Government partnership with protected monopolies. (Applause.)

Fifth—Home rule to limit and localize most jealously the few powers intrusted to public servants, municipal, State and Federal; no centralization.

Sixth—Equal and exact justice to all men; no partial legislation, no partial taxation.

Seventh—A free press; no gag laws. (Applause.)

Eighth—Free men, a uniform excise law, no sumptuary law.

Ninth—Official accountability enforced by better civil and criminal remedies; no private use of public funds by public officers.

Tenth—Corporations chartered by the State always supervisable by the State in the interest of the people.

Eleventh—The party in power responsible for all legislation when in power.

Twelfth—The Presidency a public trust, not a private perquisite; no third term. (Applause.)

Thirteenth—Economy in the public expense that taxes may be lightly burdened.

The Democrats of New York, in convention assembled, pledge their nominees and their representatives in the Senate and Assembly to follow where an honest and fearless chief magistrate has dared to lead in reforming the administration of our great canals so long despoiled in their construction, maintenance, repairs and revenues, to carry on with unwavering purpose and fidelity, wise measures to increase the efficiency of all departments of public work and service, and to persist in reducing our State tax in which the burdens have already been lightened by retrenchment and reforms of a single year to the amount of nearly three millions of dollars, and upon this paramount, immediate and practical issue of administrative reform, we cordially invite the co-operation of every true Democrat, every Liberal Republican and all our fellow-citizens of whatever party name, who are willing in coming State elections, to unite with us in supporting reform candidates upon a reform platform.

The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote and the president declared the platform adopted. John Bigelow was nominated for Secretary of State, Lucius Robinson for Comptroller, by acclamation; H. A. Parmenter, Charles S. Fairchild and W. H. Sawyer were nominated for Attorney-General, but subsequently Parmenter's and Sawyer's names were withdrawn, and Fairchild's nomination made unanimous. Chas. N. Ross was nominated for State Treasurer, and John D. Van Buren for State Engineer. Christopher H. Valentine, of Madison county, a merchant, has been nominated for Canal Commissioner; Rodney C. Crowley, of Cattaraugus, was nominated for State Prison Inspector.

A resolution eulogistic of Senator Kernan was adopted and with cheers for the ticket the convention at 10.30 adjourned sine die.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Seriously Injured.

HAVERHILL, Sept. 17. Two Haverhill citizens, John E. Gale, an alderman, and A. H. Adams, of the firm of A. H. Adams & Co., Boston, while standing between the tracks of the Boston and Maine freight crossing in Boston, were struck by trains passing in opposite directions, and only saved their lives by a miracle. Both were knocked down. Mr. Gale had sere al ribs fractured and Mr. Adams had a gash on the head. Both were brought to the city. Gale is in a critical condition.

Jordan, Marsh & Co.'s Store on Fire—Loss About $150,000—An Exciting Time.

BOSTON, Sept. 17. About 2 o'clock this afternoon fire was discovered in the fifth story of the immense wholesale dry goods house of Jordan, Marsh & Co., fronting Summer street, having started in a mysterious manner in a quantity of cotton batting. The fire brigade of the firm attempted to quench the flames, but the pumps failed and a quarter of an hour elapsed before the fire department was called. In the meantime the flames filled the upper story and the situation had become so serious that three alarms were sounded. In about an hour by extreme effort the flames were controlled, though the entire building, containing a million of property, was flooded. The elevators fell during the fire and threatened to ignite the lower stories, but this was fortunately prevented. Stores in the immediate neighborhood were closed on the breaking out of the fire and all possible assistance rendered by the clerical forces. The loss on the stock under the circumstances cannot be correctly estimated, but careful estimates place it at about $150,000. On this there is an insurance of over $400,000, distributed among 24 companies. The retail branch of the firm in Washington street being separated by a courtway was not injured, though some excitement prevailed among the customers and it was speedily closed.

A TERRIBLE GALE.

GALVESTON PARTIALLY FLOODED.

THIRTY LIVES LOST.

The City Submerged—Thirty Lives Lost —Great Damage in all Directions.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17. A special from the Houston Times dated yesterday, says there has been a fearful gale at Galveston since yesterday morning. The city is partially under water, which is several feet deep in the principal streets. Several wrecks are reported. The Ocean House on Gulf Beach is entirely surrounded with water and the out houses gone. The City Hospital is filled with water and much damage is already sustained by citizens, who are terribly frightened and the storm is pronounced the heaviest since 1867. Thirty workmen on the breakwater being built by the Government were cut off and are lost. The Santa Fe railroad bridge across the bay was swept away and the Houston railroad bridge is under water, twenty feet of this end being washed away. The water at Virginia Point has backed up for three miles on the main land and is still rising.

The Gale is Increasing and the barometer is falling. The bay is so full of water that if the wind changes to the north the whole island is lost and no lives can be saved. The shipping in the harbor was having a fearful time at last accounts. The latest news at five this afternoon announces the safety of the ship dredging fleet.

SCRANTON, Sept. 17. The Welsh National Elated Fod is being celebrated here in a grand pavilion. The attendance is very large, and a singing choir of 1500 voices comprising Welsh miners and wives has been greatly admired. They are under Carl Zerrahn's directorship.

Terrible State of Things at Howell's Station.

NAVY YARD, Pensacola, Sept. 15. The yellow fever is epidemic at Howell's Station on Pensacola Bay, 25 miles above here. The people have neither food, medicine or attendance, and are crying in the name of God for relief. The Navy Yard is perfectly healthy.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

A New Orleans despatch says the equinoctial storm still rages violently.

The bids for the construction of the Pensacola sectional dock range from $319,000 to 319,000.

The gale of Wednesday on the Gulf of Mexico extended from Key West to the Rio Grande. The tide at Atchafalaya Bay is reported the highest for 18 years.

At the Republican Ward caucuses held in Boston last evening, a full delegation favoring the nomination of Mr. Rice for Governor was chosen, one hundred and eleven in all.

The State Committee representing the Liberal Republican voters of Massachusetts have issued a lengthy address to the people of the State claiming that the same reasons ex ist to-day for independent action as three years ago.

Various Reports.

The Standard to-day has a special from Vienna which contains the following: The reports of victories by Servian bands near Novi Mirosch are untrue. A corps of invading volunteers compelled the Christian inhabitants of Grahovo to revolt. A fierce fight ensued with the Turks, the Christian inhabitants in which the insurgents were defeated. Authentic accounts received from the Zeubli district announce that the Turks are advancing slowly and the insurgents are discordant. A majority of the volunteers have returned home. The Catholics of Mostar have presented a declaration to Derrish Pasha in which they say they have no reason to complain of the Turkish Government in Albania. All the Turkish militia have assembled. SO WAGS THE WORLD.

BY NELLY E. HUTCHINSON.

Memory cannot linger long;
Joy must slip the quest;
Hope's like a little silver song
Trailing in a mesh.
So wags the world away
Forever a day.

But Love, that dwells at madness,
Laughs and grieves in toil and sadness,
Makes unseeming goyes to see,
Mad beneath wealth in poverty,
So wags the gold old world away
Forever a day.
